BARRINGTON WOODS Never Looked Better Than Today

Lombard, IL – January 30, 2012 – RECI President and Managing Broker, James A. Hopkins, proudly represents RCG Management as leasing agent at the expansive and prestigious Barrington business center known as THE OFFICES AT BARRINGTON WOODS.

With a marketing campaign in full swing and prospects showing interests in all that this professional community offers in terms of competitive leasing rates and excellent location, RECI is pleased to report the completion of many anticipated renovations that are sure to sweeten the deal for every business owner considering office space here. The completed upgrades include: new roofs, new fire panels and sprinkler systems, new entry ramps, new windows throughout, parking lot improvements, exterior improvements including paint and landscaping, and a new retaining wall. While these projects have been completed, ownership continues to work on electrical upgrades, insulation and a variety of interior projects.

After reading a recent feature on Barrington, in the Daily Herald Business Ledger, it was easy to see what makes this area so appealing to both its residents and business owners. “Barrington is the hub for the whole area, featuring the Metra station, local shops and dining establishments. Its history is its draw for lovers of older homes, along with its sense of community.” Janet Meyer, BACC President & CEO, also describes Barrington as “a thriving region with a 95-mile footprint of entrepreneurialism, positive energy, and camaraderie, fueling the spirit of the region.” (Barrington is approximately 24 minutes from Chicago O’Hare and 32 minutes from downtown Chicago.) Imagine working in the same town you live in!
